

THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Survey says . . .

The Parish Advisory Council (PAC) responds to your questions and comments from the parish survey last year.

Q7 Please include any comments you wish to make concerning aspects of worship and liturgy at St. Joseph of Cupertino.

Comment: Wish we could video Fr. Greg's homily and post at parish website for future reflections.

Good news! Most of Fr. Greg's homilies since Easter of 2009 are available online. Go to our parish website, www.stjoscup.org, then click on Parish, Homilies, and SJC Flyer Weblog (on the left side of the page). Or you can just go to the SJC Flyer Weblog directly at http://stjoscup.org/weblog_flyer.php. On the Weblog, the homilies are arranged newest to latest and Father Greg tries to keep the posts updated regularly. Unfortunately, Father Greg does not like to be filmed (he doesn't even like to see photos of himself!). But he appreciates the interest!

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us how to live: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." Love is all we need – can we do that?

Stewardship Prayer

Rev. Gregory Kimm, 2009

God rich in kindness and generous in love,
You call us to be your people, a church, a community of faith.
You have entrusted St. Joseph of Cupertino Parish to our care.
Help us to be good stewards, always worthy of your trust.
As you are attentive to the needs of each of us,
Enable us to be attentive to the needs of our parish,
using the gifts you have given us not just for our own good,
but for the good of all.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Brother, and in the Spirit, who makes us one.

Amen!

Meant4More Youth Ministry is open to all students in high school. We meet every Sunday from 6-8pm. Come join us and make new friends, learn your faith, play games, sing, go on trips and watch movies. For more information email primomartinez@yahoo.com.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One ancient Roman custom that was approved by the church was the veiling of the bride. When a single woman pledged her life to Christ, in a way of life not dissimilar to today's religious women, the outward sign of this commitment was a veiling. In ancient Rome, a woman with uncovered head was unmarried, and a veiled woman was "off limits to suitors." It was one small step to decide that a bride should receive a veil from the hands of the church as a sign of her new state in life. The prayer that accompanied the veiling was beautiful, and sung, a kind of consecratory prayer that was very similar to the prayer of ordination, or the prayers for blessing holy water or chrism. The "nuptial blessing" originally mentioned only the woman, although we know that the veil was often extended to cover the husband's shoulders also. The blessing was located before the kiss of peace, which the priest gave to the husband, and the husband to his new bride. Remember that this is in the early centuries, long before the kiss of peace virtually disappeared from liturgy. The veiling and blessing was required when priests or deacons married, was recommended to laypersons, but forbidden for certain public sinners and second marriages. The veiling of the couple was preserved in England until the Reformation, and is returning to practice among Swedish Lutherans after having fallen into disuse about seventy-five years ago.

"BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY" This ministry is for grieving families. Teams from the parish supply salads or desserts for a small group of people in the family's home or our community center following a funeral. (If you would like to be part of this ministry, please call Marlene at (408) 741-1615)
