

GOD'S HOUSE NEEDS A NEW ROOF!

We didn't get all the rain we expected this year. Bad news for California—but good news for St. Joseph of Cupertino because fewer parishioners got wet sitting under our leaky roof! After 63 years, it is time for a new one. Contractors are ready to go to work. PLEASE HELP US TO PAY THE COST, WHICH WILL BE MORE THAN $120,000. Anything you can give will be appreciated. Please make checks payable to St. Joseph of Cupertino and write ROOF in the memo line.

Are you confused about the Sunday Mass? Would you like to understand the Mass better and gain an appreciation for the Mass? Sign up to participate in a 10-session doctoral project on the Sunday Mass led by Tam Tran, the parish catechetical director. For details, contact Tam at 408-252-7653 x41 or ttran@dsj.org. Sessions begin in October.

ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY: Because this solemnity falls on a Monday this year, the obligation to attend mass is removed. Mass will be at 8:30 A.M. as usual on Monday, August 15.

Going on vacation? We're still counting on you! Please remember your Sunday offering.

MOVIES: If you have suggestions for movies that would be appropriate for us to show which have a faith connection, please call Janice at the parish office. We are looking for movies for adults and also movies appropriate for the entire family!

PARISH FEAST DAY We will celebrate the feast of our patron saint, Joseph of Cupertino, on his actual feast day, Sunday, September 18. A reception will follow the special mass in honor of St. Joseph at 11 A.M. In order to carry on our tradition of enjoying a lunch featuring foods representing the diversity of our parish, we need four volunteers: 1) someone to make contact with various cultural groups and ask for donations of food; 2) someone to coordinate the setting up of the hall; 3) someone to coordinate the serving of food; 4) someone to coordinate the clean up after the lunch. Please consider this once-a-year request and call the office to volunteer.

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

Am I waiting for the “right” time to become a good steward? Do I plan to share my time and talents “later”? Today’s Gospel warns those who are procrastinating about stewardship to be prepared – for “at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

Stewardship Prayer

Rev. Gregory Kimm, 2009

God rich in kindness and generous in love,
 You call us to be your people, a church, a community of faith.
 You have entrusted St. Joseph of Cupertino Parish to our care.
 Help us to be good stewards, always worthy of your trust.
 As you are attentive to the needs of each of us,
 Enable us to be attentive to the needs of our parish,
 using the gifts you have given us not just for our own good,
 but for the good of all.
 We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Brother, and in the Spirit, who makes us one.

Amen!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last week’s “Treasure” noted that the official headgear of the pope, the tiara, has been set aside in favor of the miter. Although Pope Paul VI had a coronation in 1963 to begin his ministry as pope, he later gave his tiara away to the Catholics of the United States as a stimulus to end poverty. He took care to say that he was not abolishing the tradition of coronation, but his successor, Pope John Paul I, decided to have an inauguration to begin his tragically short term. His successors have chosen inauguration as well. Pope John Paul II felt that a return to the coronation custom would be inappropriate since the Church was mourning the sudden death of a man already nicknamed “The Laughing Pope.”

So the end of coronations came about not because Paul VI gave the crown away. There are more than twenty tiaras on hand at the Vatican. One is used every year to crown the famous statue of St. Peter, whose sandaled foot has been eroded to a bright shine by the hands of millions of pilgrims. Today, it is left to the individual pope to decide whether he will begin his formal reign with a coronation or an inauguration. Pope Benedict chose an inauguration, as did Pope Francis.

“BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY” This ministry is for grieving families. Teams from the parish supply salads or desserts for a small group of people in the family’s home or our community center following a funeral. (If you would like to be part of this ministry, please call Marlene at (408) 741-1615)
