

Congratulations . . . to us!

St. Joseph of Cupertino has been selected to receive the city of Cupertino's 2017 CREST Award. This award honors organizations and individuals that have made outstanding volunteer contributions to our local community. (CREST stands for "Cupertino Recognizes Extra Steps Taken.") Members of the parish who would like to be present at the awards ceremony are invited to come to the Community Hall on Torre Ave. on Wednesday, May 31 at 7 P.M.

Calling all those who knit, crochet or want to learn!
A new ministry is being born here at St. Joseph of Cupertino called Warm Hugs.

Warm Hugs ministry will gather like-minded people monthly in fellowship to create scarves and warm hats for the homeless. Faith in Action and the local area safety departments are on board to assist with the distribution of scarves and hats to those in need; all we need are willing hands! There are several ways to take part in this ministry: meet with the group once a month to knit/crochet the hats and scarves, knit/crochet the hats and scarves at home, or donate your extra yarn and needles/hooks. The next meeting is Monday, June 12th from 11am-12pm in the community center. Please contact Candy Cole at 408-718-6637 if you're interested or have any questions.

The Spiritual book club just completed their 3rd year together with a deep and thought provoking book by Father Richard Rohr titled Falling Upward.

Other books we read this year included The Blood Brothers, Gods Hotel, A Song for Nagasaki, and To the Field of Stars and many others. We will be taking a short respite over the summer and will be meeting again on September 25 to discuss our summer read The Loneliness and Longing of Saint Francis by Straub.

Please consider reading our next book and joining us on that evening for prayer, a lively discussion and fellowship!

Please contact Candy Cole with any questions at (408) 718-6637.

Come see our own Dan Morris in the Opera "Gianni Schicchi" with Lyric Theatre of San Jose, June 17-25. Details at lyrictheatre.org or call (408) 986-1455

Going on vacation? We are still counting on you. Please remember your Sunday envelope!

Rotating Shelter will be here at SJC in July!

This is the 25th year that St. Joseph of Cupertino has participated in the Faith in Action Silicon Valley Rotating Shelter program for homeless men in our area. We will be hosting the shelter once again from June 30th to July 29th in our parish, providing shelter, food, and assistance for up to 15 men who are willing and able to work and to regain their independence.

Faith in Action provides professional case management, overnight supervisors, and other supportive services for our clients, including assistance with job and housing searches. The applicants are carefully screened, are drug and alcohol free, and are allowed to stay for a period of up to 90 days, as long as they are in compliance with program requirements and are making progress towards the goal of self-sufficiency and permanent housing. Each month, the shelter "rotates" to a different church or synagogue.

The shelter will be located in our parish hall/school, and we will be asking for your assistance to provide dinners, do shopping for breakfast and lunch materials, and purchase items for hygiene and laundry kits. Quarters for laundry and monetary donations for this very worthy non-profit are greatly needed. We hope you will consider helping the shelter program in some capacity.

Would you like to sign up to bring dinner for 15 men on any of the evenings from June 30th to July 28th? Don't wait – the meal calendar fills up quickly.

You can contact Mary Ellen Hennig NOW to secure a place on the calendar at (408) 255-6382 fhennig@att.net Thank you to all our SJC parishioners who have helped the shelter in past years!!!

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

Stewardship at St. Joseph of Cupertino

In today's Gospel, we hear that "God so loved the world He gave his only Son ... so that everyone might have eternal life." Gos gave us the special gift of eternal life. What gifts do we give to others?

Stewardship Prayer

Rev. Gregory Kimm, 2009

God rich in kindness and generous in love,
 You call us to be your people, a church, a community of faith.
 You have entrusted St. Joseph of Cupertino Parish to our care.
 Help us to be good stewards, always worthy of your trust.
 As you are attentive to the needs of each of us,
 Enable us to be attentive to the needs of our parish,
 using the gifts you have given us not just for our own good, but for the good of all. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Brother, and in the Spirit, who makes us one.

Amen!

Meant4More Youth Ministry is open to all students in high school. We meet every Sunday from 6-8pm. Come join us and make new friends, learn your faith, play games, sing, go on trips and watch movies. For more information email primomartinez@yahoo.com.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It is often heard that today's observance is an "idea feast," and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, "Well, it's a mystery."

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a "relationship feast," since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as "The Hospitality of Abraham," depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C's if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an "idea" for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

MOM'S GROUP: One of our Mom's groups focuses on getting together at a park for play time and having some faith sharing amongst the moms. For more information, call Carol Ruiz at (408) 777-2966.

"BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY" This ministry is for grieving families. Teams from the parish supply salads or desserts for a small group of people in the family's home or our community center following a funeral. (If you would like to be part of this ministry, please call Marlene at (408) 741-1615)

Automated Giving is here—Have you signed up yet?
 All parishioners are encouraged to give a set monthly amount. There are a number of ways this can be accomplished. You can sign up for online giving by clicking on “donations” on the St. Joseph website home page (www.stjoscup.org). You can use your bank’s online bill pay service to set up a recurring monthly payment to St. Joseph, or you can write one check each month and either drop it in the collection basket or send it to the parish office. If you have questions, please contact the Planned Parish Giving team at ppcteam@stjoscup.org or call Mike Hoffman at (408) 315-1463.
